

Liability Release Waiver for Special Encounters & Guest Experiences at WIREC

Participants understand any free or protected contact experiences or encounters offered by Wildlife Images Rehabilitation and Education Center involve exotic captive animals that may still be a danger to participants or others, including staff. By signing this document participants (named below) assume any risk of harm or injury which may occur and release Wildlife Images Rehabilitation and Education Center of all liability, cost, and/or damages which may result from participation in guest experiences and special encounters offered by the park. If any participants are minors, by signing this document the signer assumes all legal and financial responsibility for underage participants.